

Not Just Any Body's Therapy:

Gender Issues in Psychotherapy with the Medically Ill

Friday May 11, 2007

Women's College Hospital

Keynote Speakers

Arthur Frank

Sociologist, University of Calgary
Author of The Wounded Storyteller: Body, Illness & Ethics and At the Will of the Body

Ellyn Kaschak

Psychologist, San Jose State University
Editor of Minding the Body: Psychotherapy with Women with Chronic Illness and Life-threatening Illnesses

Jane Leserman

Medical Sociologist, University of North Carolina
Leading Expert on the role of Trauma in HIV and GI Disorders

Workshops

CBT with Irritable Bowel Syndrome

Couple Therapy When a Partner is Ill

Facing Declining Health with Age

Gender in Mindfulness Programs

The Medically Ill Therapist in Clinical Practise

The Medically Ill Trauma Survivor

Mixed vs. Gender-Specific Psychotherapy Groups

Narrative Therapy for Men and Women Living with HIV and AIDS

Held in conjunction with the 4th Annual Women's Mental Health Research Day

"Medical Illness in Women: Integrating the Mind & Body"

May 10, 2007

Contact: jwan@mtsinai.on.ca

Registration (includes lunch):

$100 Early Bird Registration

$110 After April 1st

$75 Students/Residents (spaces limited)

To register go to www.womensresearch.ca/notjustanybody.

For more information:

notjustanybody@womensresearch.ca

Shannon Balla 416-351-3732 x 2325

Women's College Hospital

Women's College
RESEARCH INSTITUTE

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO